CHIMES

1956

As the chimes in Lawson's Tower ring out another graduation, we, the class of 1956, remember the wonderful years spend in their shadow at Scituate High School. The teachers we've had, the friends we've made, the games we've won, and the good times we've enjoyed together will continue to ring in our memories.

Soon the members of our class will leave Scituate High School to take their places in the world. To preserve our memories for future years, we present our yearbook, the 1956 CHIMES. As the chimes continue to ring the passing of the classes, may the alumni of Scituate High School spread its spirit throughout the world.

We Remember . . . . .

GEORGE A. J. FROBERGER

In July, 1955, Mr. George A. J. Froberger retired, because of his health, after eight years of service in the Scituate School Department. He was principal of the Junior-Senior High School from 1947 to 1954, and assistant superintendent of schools from 1954 to 1955. Mr. Froberger is remembered and respected for his sincere interest in young people and for the high ideals which he tried to inculcate in the students of Scituate High School

ANNE L. CUNNEEN

Anne L. Cunnen, beloved teacher of English in the Scituate schools since 1919, passed away in July, 1955. Miss Cunneen was loved by former students as a sympathetic teacher and friend. One of her great contributions to the town was her work with Americanization classes. In 1954, the Kiwanis Club awarded her the "Woman of the Year" plaque for her outstanding service as one of Scituate's great teachers.

Message from the Principal

One of the most eagerly anticipated events of any school year is the publication of the yearbook. A chronicle of the year's events, its pictures worth many thousand words, your yearbook will delight you now and recall memories in future years.

"The Chimes" attests the many hours of planning and work unselfishly given by the staff and their faculty advisors. Their satisfaction and thanks come from your enjoyment.

Memories of Our Senior Year

Let's look once more at the year just passed,
Realizing, as we do, that it is our last.
We agree that being seniors was simply the greatest;
Here's a review of the year up to the latest.

This year Big Bob was elected top man
With Larry always ready to lend a hand.
Mary Sue got the note-book, and Debbie the bank;
For leading the class, we'd like to say thanks.

To our advisers, Mrs. Bauer and Mr. Benson, too,
Much of our success is owed to you.
You helped with our dances, our prom, and our play;
We thank you for guiding us on our way.

In football our boys were really on the ball,
Though Larry's broken arm didn't help at all.
Jimmy was captain of the high school team,
And Dean was destined for the All-Star Team.

But football wasn't the only reason
For everyone's enjoying the '55 season.
The field hockey team captured second place,
And the track team was first in many a race.

The cheerleaders had a right to complain,
For during the season it did nothing but rain.
Ellie led this rain-soaked crew,
Starring Joan and Debbie and Phyllis, too.

Our class made history in their Good Government selection;
Mary Sue was the first girl to win the election.
Anne was elected Good Citizen of the D. A. R.,
And Charlie, with the Bausch-Lomb Award, did star.

For president, the Key Club chose "Duke" Rencurrel;
With him presiding, all went well.
Roger was president of Student Council this year
With Vice President Dean always near.

Oh! another thing important to mention--
As Godfrey, Roger drew a lot of attention.
We used the Coronation as a spring dance theme,
And on March the second crowned a king and a queen.

Debbie had the lead in the senior class play,
With Ellie and Joan prompting along the way.
Joan and Leonard, Jim, Carrie, and Sue
Displayed their talents,--to name just a few.

Pro Merito claimed those who reached scholastic fame.
As officers, Charlie, Addison, and Mary Sue were named.
The girls were co-champs in basketball,
But sharing the honors didn't matter at all.

There were lots of clubs, some old, some new.
Future Teachers' and Nurses' Club are only two.
Included here are glee club and band;
The music they made was really grand.

As graduation ends these happy days,
And all of us go our separate ways,
We'll all, each one, keep the memory clear
Of Scituate High, our Alma Mater dear.

Senior Class Play

The 1956 Senior Class play was entitled "Maudie and the Opposite Sex." The production was directed by Mr. Raymond Biggar.

Davy was played by Roger Kirwood, with Leonard Stone as Mr. Endicott. Others in the cast were Phyllis Gleason as Marge, Cynthia Carlsen as Bev, Sylvia Dauphinee as Sandy, Marilyn Budjinski as Terry, and Susan Aiken as Pat. Two life guards were played by Lawrence Mayo and Dean Shea.

The cast was ably assisted by the following committee: prompters, Eleanor Chamberlain and Joan Turner; production manager, Robert Lopes; stage manager, Winfred Dennis; make-up, Mr. Leonard Arnold; candy, Miss Vinal; tickets, Mr. Benson; programs, Miss Hawkes; scenery, Miss Shmauk, Mr. Burgess, and John Litz; publicity, Addison Pratt; curtains, lights, and sound, John Falvey and Charles Rodgers.

On the Honor Roll for the first marking period were Jean Curran, George Rodgers, Bruce Simmon, Charlotte White, and Margaret Wyman.

The Sophomores are a lively and energetic group. There are numerous sophomores in the school athletic program; and several are helping in the office and library. The class has also added its talent to the orchestra, band, and glee club.

The Freshman basketball team had a very successful year, and there were many Freshmen on the wrestling squad. The second field hockey team, consisting of many members of our class, was undefeated except for one tie with Marshfield.

Many Freshmen are excellent students, in addition to being interested in sports and other school activities.

Grade Eight

John Ewing represented the eighth grade on the Student Council this year.

This was the first year in this school that the eighth grade has been allowed to take Latin, and many students elected it.

For the second year the Junior High had a newspaper, THE MARINER. Susan Smollett, an eighth grader, was one of the co-editors.

Carol Claybourne and David Parker were our representatives to the band, and Roger Calderwood, Richard Burt, and Suzanne Murphy were in both band and orchestra.

For the first time the junior high boys had their own football and basketball squads under the direction of Mr. Keenan.

In the first marking term Susan Acker, Constance Dwyer, Janice Jackson, Judith MacIntosh, Maureen Sexton, Arleen Soucy, Barbara Sylvester, and Kathleen Walsh received honors.

Many of us found the work harder this year, but in spite of this we are looking forward to the coming year.

We are doing well in our school work also. For the first marking period Jonathan Gunn and Marsha Haartz made the honor roll, and quite a few other students received honorable mention.

They also held an assembly to publicize the work of the Student Council and its constitution.

This fall the band played at most of the football games and rallies, and they participated in the High School Band Day at a Boston University game. They joined in the South Shore Christmas Parade at Quincy, presented two joint concerts with the Marshfield High Band, played in the annual concert of the Music Department, and in May attended the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival held at Needham.

Two groups of band musicians made up the Fife, Jug, and Bottle Band and the German Band. The program was presented at an evening performance open to the public free of charge, and at the Christmas assembly. The orchestra participated in the annual Spring Concert, and climaxed their season by playing at the Baccalaureate, Class Day, and Graduation exercises.

Constance Bailey was accepted to play trombone in the All-State Orchestra, which was conducted for three days in April at Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

There were approximately forty Glee Club members. The Freshmen and Sophomores comprised one group; and the Juniors and Seniors, another. The combined Glee Club group met once a week during the Activity Period.

The officers of the Junior-Senior group were Eleanor Chamberlain, president; Robert Lopes, secretary; Gail Roberts, manager; Beverly Burham, head librarian; Constance Bailey, accompanist; Hugh Lynch, librarian; and Winifred Dennis, assistant librarian.

Football

Rain and sickness were big factors in the 1955 football campaign.
The record of three wins and three losses does not show the efforts of the team. Scituate lost to Bridgewater on a badbreak, 14-7. However, the last two games ended on a happy
note, with Scituate victorious over Hanover and Holbrook.

At the end of the season the team
voted Jimmy Breen captain for 1955.
Dean Shea and James Prouty were chosen to represent Scituate on the QUINCY PATRIOT-LEDGER'S All-Star Team. Prouty received further recognition by being voted a co-captain of this Dream Team.

Field Hockey

Although the field hockey season was short this year, the games could not have been played more enthusiastically. Scituate's 1955 field hockey team was highly successful. Of the five games played, there was only one loss, which was to Marshfield. The scores for the games played were 4-1, Norwell; 2-2, Hanover; 3-1, Cohasset; 9-0, Duxbury; and 1-2, Marshfield. The total number of goals for Scituate was 19; for our opponents, 5. Mary Sue Curran was high scorer with 10 goals. Linda Stewart and Joyce Perry tied for second place with 3 goals each.

Scituate's game with Marshfield was a fine show of sportsmanship and the will to win, although the final score was in Marshfield's favor. At the end of the season Scituate tied with Hanover for second place for the South Shore Championship.

Cross Country

This was only the second year that a cross country team has carried the banner for Scituate High. But in those two years, it has become a power among the teams in this area.

Among the titles won by the team were Class A and B Winners of the South Shore Meet, and State Class D Champions. At the New England Meet at Storrs, Connecticut, Jed Fitzgerald made an excellent showing.

South Shore League Champions

THE RECORD

After a slow start in pre-league games Scituate really got on the ball and rolled on to the Championship of the South Shore League with a 9 to 1 record. Among the team's accomplishments was the first win over Marshfield on their court in many years. The team also rocked to a berth on the Tech Tourney played at Boston Garden in March.

Wrestling

Scituate is one of the very few small schools in this area that offer wrestling as a winter sport.

This being only the second year that Scituate High has had a wrestling team, the mat-men are still young and inexperienced. However, the team gained several new recruits this year, some of whom look very promising. Under the expert coaching of Mr. Bordne, Scituate should have a top-notch wrestling team in a few years.

Meets were scheduled this season with Roxbury Latin, Noble and Greenough, Brown and Nichols, Wellesley, Needham, and Belmont Hill. Also for the first time Scituate High sent contenders to the New England Meet, which was held at Needham.
